++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear spells overnight. Cloudier and breezier tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
Staying dry with clear spells during the evening but tending to become cloudier and breezier later in the night. A touch of frost is possible in prone spots. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudier and windier day, perhaps with some patchy drizzle on hills. Some sunny intervals are still possible in the east, although these will be fewer than of late. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Increasingly breezy and showery during this period, although some sunny spells remain likely, especially Wednesday. Turning cold by Friday with the risk of showers turning wintry.
